This delightful house is one of those rare occasions when you find a frontline property that has that special touch of privacy, nature and charm that makes it a true oasis where you want to lose yourself and where time seems to stand still – enjoy the marvellous view from the terrace where the sea and the infinity pool merge, the lush vegetation in the garden and the natural surroundings of this beautiful house together with the warm Mediterranean climate form a perfect harmony. Spacious rooms, guest accommodation, numerous indoor and outdoor corners to choose from depending on the time of day – a varied brunch, a good glass of wine, a good book, an intimate dinner, a lively party by the pool, a winter evening by the fireplace, a relaxing moment on a sun lounger while listening to the birds singing and the sound of the sea; everything in this beautiful villa smells of home and unforgettable moments. With all the necessary services nearby such as supermarket, international school, paddle and tennis courts, municipal swimming pool and social club and the spectacular Cala Moraig nearby. In addition, this beautiful property is strategically located between the beautiful towns of Jávea and Moraira, where you can also enjoy the best restaurants in the area, yacht clubs, nice shops and all kinds of water activities for all tastes.
